Members have a right to have a copy of the information the organisation holds on them.

Our website uses cookies and users are warned of this.

This information is kept until:

- a) A member formally leaves the community
- or
- b) The end of the calendar year in which a member fails to renew her/his subscription.

This is what we do with the information:

We use this information to contact our members about forthcoming events. The financial information is used to meet our legal obligations in the production of annual accounts. We do not give, sell or share this information with anybody else.

This website is secured by an SSL Certificate. Any personal data submitted to us via our contact form is stored on secure servers.

Members can e-mail us via the Contact link on the BWPJC website should they wish to.
